3. PAYMENT OPTION SECTION (SEND NO MONEY NOW – WE’LL BILL YOU LATER)

OPTION 1: Electronic Funds Transfer Monthly Quarterly Semi-Annual Annual

Authorization for Electronic Funds Transfer

I request and authorize Pearl Insurance to make withdrawals based on my selected payment method above against the account specified on the attached voided check or savings account deposit slip, or any account subsequently named by me, and such bank to process these withdrawals as if I had signed them, for the purpose of collecting premium contributions due under this plan. In order to process your electronic payment, both the Account # and Bank Routing # must appear on the voided check or deposit slip. I understand that by completing the required information regarding my enrollment I am authorizing automatic deductions/charges for the insurance premium from my account, including any increases in premium due to age.

The premium, based on the rider I selected, will be deducted from or charged to my account as indicated above unless I call the plan administrator to cancel. I understand that I must contact the plan administrator if I wish to cancel these automatic deductions/charges or if I wish to cancel my insurance coverage.

I also understand that my authorization for the deduction is not part of my certificate of insurance, nor does it modify any terms or conditions contained therein. The insurance company is not liable if the financial institution dishonors any amount deducted/charged and may terminate my insurance coverage at the end of the 31 day grace period, effective as of the Due Date if premium for my insurance is not paid. Payment of the initial premium is one of the conditions required in order for my coverage to be placed in effect. I understand that if the deduction/charge is declined for any reason, my coverage will not take effect.

5. AUTHORIZATION AND DECLARATION OF PERSON GIVING A STATEMENT OF INSURABILITY

I understand that New York Life Insurance Company has the right to require additional information and, if necessary, an examination by a physician. I ask New York Life to rely on all such statements made on this form, and any supplements to it, while considering this request. I also understand that the coverage afforded will be in consideration of the answers and statements set forth above.

AUTHORIZATION: I hereby authorize any licensed physician, medical practitioner, hospital, pharmacy, clinic or other medical or medically related facility, laboratory, insurance company, MIB, Inc. ("MIB"), or other organization, institution or person, that has any records or knowledge of me or my health to release information, including prescription drug records, maintained by physicians, pharmacy benefit managers, and other sources of information to New York Life Insurance Company, its reinsurers, its subsidiaries or the plan administrator about the physical and mental health of any persons proposed for insurance, including significant history, findings, diagnosis and treatment, but excluding psychotherapy notes for the purpose of evaluating my application for insurance. Health information obtained will not be re-disclosed without my authorization unless permitted by law, in which case it may not be protected under federal privacy rules. For example, New York Life may be required to provide it to insurance, regulatory, or other government agencies. In this case, the information may no longer be protected by the rules governing your AUTHORIZATION.

A photocopy of this AUTHORIZATION and request form shall be as valid as the original. In all circumstances, my authorized agent, representative, or I may request a copy of this AUTHORIZATION. This AUTHORIZATION shall be valid for a period of 24 months from the date signed, unless sooner revoked. The AUTHORIZATION may be revoked at any time by sending written notice to New York Life Insurance Company. My revocation will not be effective to the extent that New York Life or any other person already has disclosed or collected information or taken other action in reliance on it, or to the extent that New York Life has a legal right to contest a claim under an insurance certificate or the certificate itself.

By signing and dating this application, the member requests the insurance indicated; and the member and any person proposed for insurance consent to authorize the disclosure of information to and from the providers noted above and in the IMPORTANT NOTICE, including making a brief report of [my/our] protected health information to MIB, Inc.; and attest to having read the IMPORTANT NOTICE and Fraud Notices indicated [above, below, on the reverse of this page, on the attached, enclosed], including how [my/our] information is exchanged with MIB, and that to the best of [my/our] knowledge and belief, the answers provided to the questions are true and complete.

7. IMPORTANT NOTICE

How New York Life obtains information and underwrites your request for AAO Group Term Life Insurance in this notice, references to “you” and “your” include any person proposed for insurance. Information regarding insurability will be treated as confidential. In considering whether the person(s) in your request for insurance qualify for insurance, we will rely on the medical information you provide, and on the information you AUTHORIZE us to obtain from your physician, other medical practitioners and facilities, other insurance companies to which you have applied for insurance and MIB, Inc. (“MIB”). MIB is a not-for-profit organization of insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply for life or health insurance coverage or a claim for benefits is submitted to an MIB member company, medical, or non-medical information may be given to MIB, and such information may then be furnished by MIB, upon request, to a member company.

Your AUTHORIZATION may be used for a period of 24 months from the date you signed the application for insurance, unless sooner revoked. The AUTHORIZATION may be revoked at any time by notifying New York Life in writing at the address provided. Your revocation will not be effective to the extent New York Life or any other person already has disclosed or collected information or taken other action in reliance on it, or to the extent that New York Life has a legal right to contest a claim under an insurance certificate or the certificate itself. The information New York Life obtains through your AUTHORIZATION may become subject to further disclosure. For example, New York Life may be required to provide it to insurance, regulatory or other government agencies. In this case, the information may no longer be protected by the rules governing your AUTHORIZATION.

MIB and other insurance companies may also furnish New York Life, its subsidiaries or the Plan Administrator with non-medical information (such as driving records, past convictions, hazardous sport or aviation activity, use of alcohol or drugs, and other applications for insurance). The information provided may include information that may predate the time frame stated on the medical questions section, if any, on this application. This information may be used during the underwriting and claims processes, where permitted by law. New York Life may release this information to the Plan Administrator, other insurance companies to which you may apply for life and health insurance, or to which a claim for benefits may be submitted and to others whom you authorize in writing, however, this will not be done in connection with test results concerning Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) or Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV). We may also make a brief report of your protected health information to MIB, but we will not disclose our underwriting decision.

New York Life will not disclose such information to anyone except those you authorize or where required or permitted by law. Information in our files may be seen by New York Life and Plan Administrator employees, but only on a “need to know” basis in considering your request. Upon receipt of all requested information, we will make a determination as to whether your request for insurance can be approved. If we cannot provide the coverage you requested, we will tell you why. If you feel our information is inaccurate, you will be given a chance to correct or complete the information in our files. Upon written request to New York Life or MIB, you will be provided with non-medical information. Generally, medical information will be given either directly to the proposed insured or to a medical professional designated by the proposed insured. Your request is handled in accordance with the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act procedures.

If you question the accuracy of the information provided by MIB, you may contact MIB and seek a correction. MIB's information office is: MIB, Inc., 50 Braintree Hill Park, Suite 400, Braintree, MA 02184-8734, telephone 866-692-6901. Information for consumers about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.
