All premiums are based on your age each October 1st and increase as you attain a new age bracket (e.g. 35, 40, etc.). New York Life reserves the right to change rates on any premium due date or on any date which benefits are changed.

What Is a Waiver of Premium?

If you become totally disabled while insured before age 60 and remain so for 6 consecutive months, you may not have to pay premiums to continue your coverage while you remain disabled. This benefit is retroactive to the first day of disability
